

The Broadcast Network for High Schools

Stream your events effortlessly to empower your students and engage your community.

Over half of all high schools broadcast events with the NFHS Network. As an NFHS Network member school, you have options to stream your events automatically, manually, or both. With automated production, no staffing is required. AI-powered cameras will follow all the event action and stream your events for live and on-demand viewing. With manual production, we provide the platform and tools for you to produce your own broadcasts and reach a wider audience.
